• NEVG Company: Supplies low and medium voltage switchgear, miniature and molded case circuit breakers, and distribution transformers. They provide custom solutions for industrial and commercial projects, and pricing is available upon request based on project specifications .

• Volex Electrical Engineering Limited: Offers low voltage materials, lighting fixtures, and distribution line components. Custom distribution boxes can be designed according to your load requirements, and quotes are provided after consultation .
How to Obtain Pricing
• Define Your Requirements: Specify voltage, amperage, number of circuits, enclosure type, and any additional features such as surge protection or smart monitoring.

• Contact Suppliers: Reach out to Thornlux, NEVG, or Volex via their websites or customer service channels to request a quote.

• Request a Custom Quote: Provide detailed specifications to receive an accurate price. Many suppliers also offer installation and maintenance services.

• Compare Options: Evaluate quotes based on quality, compliance with safety standards, and after-sales support.
Additional Considerations
• Compliance: Ensure the distribution boxes meet Tanzanian and international electrical safety standards.

• Delivery and Installation: Some suppliers provide on-site installation and maintenance services, which may affect the total cost.

• Bulk Orders: Larger projects may qualify for discounts or package pricing. By contacting these suppliers directly with your project specifications, you can obtain accurate custom pricing for lighting distribution boxes in Tanzania .
