Key Takeaways

Custom-made cable trays in Zambia are available from multiple suppliers, with prices varying based on material, size, and specifications, typically requiring direct quotation from manufacturers.Suppliers and Customization Options

Several reputable suppliers in Zambia offer custom-made cable trays:

• Micro Sheet Crafts provides modular and customized cable trays using high-grade steel and other durable materials. They emphasize tailored solutions to meet client specifications and offer competitive pricing, though exact costs are provided upon enquiry .

• Brilltech Engineers Pvt. Ltd. manufactures cable trays in galvanized steel, stainless steel, and fiberglass. Their trays are designed for durability, safety, and optimal airflow, with pricing dependent on size, material, and project requirements .

• Cable House has extensive experience in producing customized cable trays and related accessories. They highlight industry-leading prices and immediate delivery, with costs adjusted according to the client's specifications and customization needs . Factors Affecting Price

The cost of custom-made cable trays in Zambia depends on several factors:

• Material: Galvanized steel, stainless steel, and fiberglass have different price points, with stainless steel generally being the most expensive.

• Size and Length: Larger trays or longer runs increase material and fabrication costs.

• Design and Perforation: Perforated trays, ladder trays, or specialized designs for airflow and cable management may affect pricing.

• Quantity: Bulk orders often reduce the per-unit cost.

• Delivery and Installation: Some suppliers include delivery and installation support, which can influence the total cost.
How to Obtain Pricing

Since prices are customized based on project requirements, the most effective way to get accurate pricing is to:

• Contact suppliers directly via phone, email, or WhatsApp.

• Provide detailed specifications, including material type, dimensions, load capacity, and quantity.

• Request a formal quotation, which may include delivery and installation options.
