Considerations When Choosing a Manufacturer
• Certification Compliance: Ensure products meet IS/IEC 60079-1 standards and relevant Indian safety certifications.

• Material and Durability: Look for cast aluminum or other flame-resistant materials with IP66 or higher ratings.

• Customization: Some manufacturers provide custom enclosures for specific industrial requirements.

• Support and Delivery: Check for bulk order capabilities, technical support, and delivery timelines. These manufacturers provide reliable solutions for industrial environments requiring gas explosion-proof distribution boxes, ensuring safety and compliance with Indian and international standards.
