1. Premier Cables (Pvt) Limited Located in Karachi, Premier Cables manufactures a broad spectrum of fiber optic cables, including direct buried, non-metallic duct, self-supporting aerial, and ADSS (All Dielectric Self-Supporting) cables. Their products support long-haul transmission, metropolitan networks, and FTTH (Fiber to the Home) applications. Premier Cables holds ISO 9001:2015 certification and serves major telecom operators like PTCL, Wateen, Multinet, and Cybernet . 2. Pakistan Telecom Cables Limited (PTCL Cables) Established in 1983 and based in Hub, District Lasbella, PTCL Cables is a pioneer in Pakistan's optical fiber industry. Their state-of-the-art facility produces all types of optical fiber cables, copper telecom cables, HDPE pipes, control/instrument cables, and power cables. PTCL Cables supplies both government and private sector clients and has a production capacity of 10.8 million KM per year across multiple plants . 3. L.T. Engineering (LTE Pakistan) Founded in 1992, LTE Pakistan is a prominent manufacturer of optical fiber cables and accessories. They provide over 100,000 kilometers of fiber optic solutions, including FTTH/GPON, aerial, duct, and buried cables. LTE Pakistan has played a significant role in expanding the country's telecommunication infrastructure . 4. Infrasol Cables Infrasol offers a wide portfolio of copper and fiber optic cables, emphasizing superior quality and stringent quality control. They cater to telecom users across Pakistan and have established a strong reputation for reliable performance in both domestic and international markets .

Additional Notes

Other notable players include Fiberlink, Dolphin Engineering Solutions, and Nayatel, which focus on fiber optic network deployment, FTTH services, and managed connectivity solutions. These companies complement the manufacturing sector by providing installation and network services .

Summary

Pakistan's fiber optic cable industry is supported by a mix of established manufacturers with ISO-certified facilities and emerging players offering specialized solutions. Companies like Premier Cables, PTCL Cables, LTE Pakistan, and Infrasol provide comprehensive options for telecom, data transmission, and power distribution applications, making them key contributors to the country's digital infrastructure .
