Key Takeaways

Cable tray prices vary by material, type, and region, with Poland offering a range from €15–€120 per meter depending on specifications, while Lithuania and Bissau generally follow European or imported pricing trends.Poland

In Poland, cable trays are widely available from manufacturers like DACPOL and B-group, offering PVC, halogen-free, steel, and aluminum trays ( ). Prices depend on material, load capacity, and design:

• Ladder-type steel trays: €40–€120 per meter, suitable for heavy power cables and industrial use ( ).

• Solid-bottom trays: €35–€100 per meter, providing extra protection for sensitive cables ( ).

• Wire-mesh trays: €15–€50 per meter, lightweight and flexible for commercial or office installations ( ). Polish suppliers comply with PN, EN, and IEC standards, ensuring safety and fire resistance, which can influence pricing ( ).
Lithuania

Lithuania generally imports cable trays from European suppliers, so prices are similar to Poland, with minor variations due to shipping and VAT. Typical ranges:

• Steel ladder trays: €45–€125 per meter

• Wire-mesh trays: €20–€55 per meter

• PVC or halogen-free trays: €25–€70 per meter Local distributors often provide installation services, which may add 10–20% to the total cost.
Bissau (Guinea-Bissau)

In Bissau, cable trays are less commonly manufactured locally and are mostly imported from Europe or Asia. Prices are generally higher due to shipping and import duties:

• Steel or aluminum trays: €60–€150 per meter

• PVC or plastic trays: €30–€80 per meter Availability may be limited, so buyers often rely on international suppliers or regional distributors. It is advisable to request quotes from European suppliers who ship to West Africa for accurate pricing.
Summary

Cable tray prices are influenced by material, type, load capacity, and regional supply chains. Poland offers competitive pricing with a wide selection, Lithuania follows similar European pricing, and Bissau experiences higher costs due to import logistics. For precise procurement, contacting local distributors or European suppliers is recommended.
